2017-18 Return-to-Learn Scholarships

Adults starting or returning to college at least two years post high school are eligible for Return-to-Learn Scholarships. These scholarships are awarded each term; current or previous recipients are eligible to reapply in consecutive semesters if funds are available. Amounts and availability of the scholarships are subject to change.

Eligibility

Applicants must apply, complete all admission steps, and be admitted to UW-Barron County. The applicant must complete a scholarship application and:

- Be enrolled for a minimum of 6 course credits in a term
- Complete a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA)
- Write a brief essay, responding to the prompts provided

Selection Criteria

Scholarship recipients will be selected on the basis of:

- Level of motivation
- Ability, as demonstrated in the essays and application
- Work, community, and/or family accomplishments

Deadlines/Submission of Application

Completed applications will be reviewed beginning May 15 for summer term, July 15 for the fall term, and December 15 for the spring term of the academic year for which you are applying. Applications can be obtained from Student Services or online at barron.uwc.edu/admissions/paying/scholarships. To submit electronically, send application form and attachments to uwbcfoundation@uwc.edu. You are encouraged to apply early.
