Well-known in Great Britain and Europe as an orchestral performer and soloist, Robert Fant is now studying for a Ph.D. in performance at UW-Madison. He will present a program of solo horn music and chamber music for your enjoyment.

Namji Kim began piano studies at the age of six and gave her first recital at the age of eight at the Theatre Andre Malraux in France. She studied at the National Superior Conservatory of Paris and obtained her bachelor and master degrees from the Juilliard School. Her concert schedule has included performances in North America, Europe, Russia, and Korea. Currently Kim is an Associate Professor of Music at UW-Eau Claire.

The Faculty Piano Trio at the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater is one of the music department’s flagship faculty chamber music ensembles.

Myung Hee Chung, Piano
Benjamin Whitcomb, Cello
