Thurs., Jan. 28
Paul Chase
Dean Emeritus
UW Colleges Department of History

Fire in the Forest: How Weather Turned the Commonplace into Disaster: Peshtigo, Hinckley, and Phillips

Thurs., Feb. 4
Tim Parks
Wisconsin DNR Fishery Biologist

Status and Ecology of Cisco Populations in Wisconsin’s Inland Lakes

Thurs., Feb. 11
Dan Graff and Students
Rice Lake High School
Aquatic Ecology
Lake Study Presentations

Thurs., Feb. 25
Liz Ensz
The School of the Art Institute of Chicago

Anthropocene-Era Commemoratives

Thurs., March 3
Abdisitaar Doon
Refugee Resource Specialist
Barron Opportunity Center

Living in Barron County: A Muslim Perspective

Thurs., March 10
Sue Patrick
UW Colleges Department of History

Rice Lake’s Economy in 1929: The City on the Eve of the Great Depression as Seen Through the Pages of the Chronotype

Thurs., March 31
Amer F. Ahmed
Director of Intercultural Teaching and Faculty Development, University of Massachusetts—Amherst

Islam and Hip Hop: Poetry with Interpretive Paintings by UW-BC students

Thurs., April 7
Bruce Jungerberg
UW-Barron County Counseling Psychologist

Living the Good Life: What Psychology Research Tells Us.

Thurs., April 14
Joel Friederich
UW Colleges Department of English

“Letters from a Gunman”

Reading of original poems related to recent rampage shooting events.

Thurs., April 21
Judge J. M. Bitney
Circuit Court Judge, Branch II, Barron County

“I had the right to remain silent, but I didn’t have the ability.”

Thurs., May 5
Judge J. M. Bitney
Circuit Court Judge, Branch II, Barron County

“I had the right to remain silent, but I didn’t have the ability.”

For more information contact Anthony Millevolte anthony.millevolte@uwc.edu 715-234-8176 ext. 5407