How to find a book at UW Barron County using Search@UW

1. Visit the UW Barron County Library homepage: www.barron.uwc.edu/library

2. On the library’s homepage, look for the Search@UW search box. Type your keywords in the box and click “Search”:

!Search@UW search box

3. On the results page, click on “Books” under “Resource Type” in the left-hand menu:

!Books under Resource Type

4. Next, on the results page, scroll down until you see “Library” in the left-hand menu. If you don’t see Barron County listed, click “More options”. If Barron County is listed, click on it and skip to step 6:

!Library menu
5. Limit your results to Barron County:

6. Scroll through the results until you find a desirable title. If there are multiple versions, click on the title:
7. Scroll through the results until you find the title at the desired location. Click on "Get It" to find the call number for UW-Barron County:

8. Write down the item’s call number (ALL letters and numbers). Now you’re ready to go to the library’s shelf to find the item.